

CONVENTION ISSUE

A PERSONAL NOTE: Hello Again has been $6.00 a year since January 1976. Effective January 1985, it will be $8.00 a year. Also effective January 1985, all flyers will be $17.00.

CONVENTION - '84: More guests tentatively coming are Helen Coule, Alice (Mrs. Kenny) Delmar, Nancy Coleman, Ken Roberts, Raymond Edward Johnson, Evie Juster, Dora Johnson, Ruth Franklin, Phil Brito, Fred Foy, Blair Walliser, Jack Poppele, Mary Hunter Wolf. Not coming are George Ansbro, Joan Lorrington, Audrey Marsh, Betty Wragge, Grace Matthews, Court Benson.

Received a nice letter from Richard Crenna. He will be in Mexico filming a sequel to First Blood with Sylvester Stallone in October and will be unable to join us.

Raymond Edward Johnson will again be on Saturday afternoon's program reading a selection to be announced...Joe Webb will be having 4 dealers tables (a "garage sale" as Joe puts it). Also sometime Friday evening, Joe will have a brief meeting with interested people on plans for our 10th Convention next year...October 20, 1930 marked the 1st performance of Sherlock Holmes on radio (Adv. of the Speckled Band, with William Gillette). Script was written by Edith Meiser. Fifty-four years later to the day, Edith will be conducting a Sherlock Holmes workshop at our convention.

If you have 10 people, reserve a dinner table by sending me the names. Otherwise, reserve on the seating chart upon arrival.
